

first be who you are see what life has given to you understand your sources of life understand the relaxed breath...this peaked experience and this open window will create a vision... a certain clarity and it will guide you and tell you that these are important values in your life these are your values this is your life
this is your destiny

do not listen to what has been fed into your head parasites do not know how to live their lives...they need suckers ! all these companies are selling you your future is being sold your whole life has been sold you never lived because you need to fulfill your stupid dreams whichever society you will go in you will follow their dreams...their ideas...their stupidity you have become a robot become human understand what is yours and what is not yours do not fall into others traps do not think that those minds are your mind that these are your dreams they are other peoples unlive life that they are filling into you they tell you what you should be...to be responsible... none of it !

you are not responsible for anything but the life that is within you and that responsibility is not to anybody but to existence itself another name for it is gratitude towards godliness that is present within you you are responsible for life and your godliness and the moment you follow your inner nature you are not listening to god... you are god in action !

that is your gratitude to this life that has entered you follow it silently live it deeply and it will give you the peaked experience of fulfillment follow your inner silent thread and you are god follow others and you are a slave you are a slave because it is borrowed they are borrowing your time and your life do not sell your life so cheaply you are priceless !

value these moments of life deeply they are your life you choose your life you choose your friends it is your life !

you are not to live other peoples lives they have their lives...they can live their lives... you will see one strange phenomenon that those who do not know how to live their lives always tell you that you do not know how to live your life... that you are wrong...

this is the trap
the word responsibility the ugliest word in the world be responsible to somebody... are you not responsible to the life within you ? since when have others become gods ?
and since when have you sold your life and future to others ?
