

osho is not against marriage you can get married to your lover under a tree you simply go with your lover to the tree...i love him...he loves me... we are going to live together some leaf will fall that leaf falling...you pick it up and that is your certificate why you need a priest to watch ?
who is he to give you the certificate ? he does not even know you !
he cannot even handle his own marriage ! he is unqualified to give you a certificate with authority love is authority unto itself if you feel that there is sincerity that you need to deepen your relationship with a single individual then continue because soul also needs a deepening it is beautiful to grow your roots deeper and deeper with one being sometimes it will be good... sometimes it will be bad... you have to give and take in a relationship then marriage is perfectly beautiful he is not against marriage he is for freedom if freedom comes with your marriage how beautiful !

what a beauty !
you are not here to be jailed for life love is not a crime
there is no court

you do not need to go to any church to get married go to the sun...the moon...the stars...the river...the ocean...the trees... and you decide with your lover that today is the day and i will be as sincere as possible to you your sincerity will deepen you as a human being your sincerity in your love to your partner will reflect your authenticity so then it is so beautiful to be with one person and to be total and hope for the best

no need for marriage you have the authority marriage means you are not certain if you are certain that i am going to live with this man my whole life you will say...what a joke !
i do not need certificate...i can certify you... my love is certificate enough !

osho is against imprisonment you are free
you are a free being of light searching the ultimate freedom to reach the ultimate state of freedom you must be free
no chains...
nothing...
no rules...
no obedience... freedom towards the ultimate freedom freedom brings a certain integrity you cannot blame it on others now the moment you are free for the first moment you are responsible now it is not easy to be free freedom brings its own responsibilities
